

Congregational Culture & Mentoring Cohort

Is your congregation looking for ways to engage in and develop healthy mentoring practices with those younger members of your churches? This cohort might be for you.

The goals of this cohort are to,

1. Encourage church teams to dream/vision about the steps they will take to become a church that include mentoring relationships that are focused on emerging adults.
2. Equip church teams with skills, information and resources to build and sustain a mentoring culture in their church context.
3. Support team leaders with coaching relationships throughout the cohort that provide support and accountability to participants seeking to build a mentoring culture in their church

The Coaches for this cohort are,

- Rick Zomer, Executive Director of ThereforeGo Ministries (formerly known as Youth Unlimited)
- Lesli Van Milligan, Regional Catalyzer for Ontario and Eastern Canada for Faith Formation Ministries
- Ron deVries, CRCNA Youth Ministries Catalyzer and Ambassador for ThereforeGo Ministries

The basic structure of the cohort will look like this

- Prep work before first session
- 4 virtual sessions (one per month--apx. 1.5 hours in length)
- 4 coaching sessions (one per month)
- One virtual final wrap up session

January 2021	Team works through prep playlist, briefly meet coach, Session 1
February 2021	Session 2 and coaching session
March 2021	Session 3 and coaching session
April 2021	Session 4 and coaching session
May 2021	Wrap up session

Who needs to be present:

- Each church will have a team present for each of the virtual sessions
- Coaching session may include entire team or solely the team lead

What is the cost:

- $500.00 USD or CAD payable to ThereforeGo Ministries

For more information, please contact

Ron deVries

rondevries@crcna.org or ron@thereforego.com

780-619-6566